Welcome to the Blackstone
Historical Museum

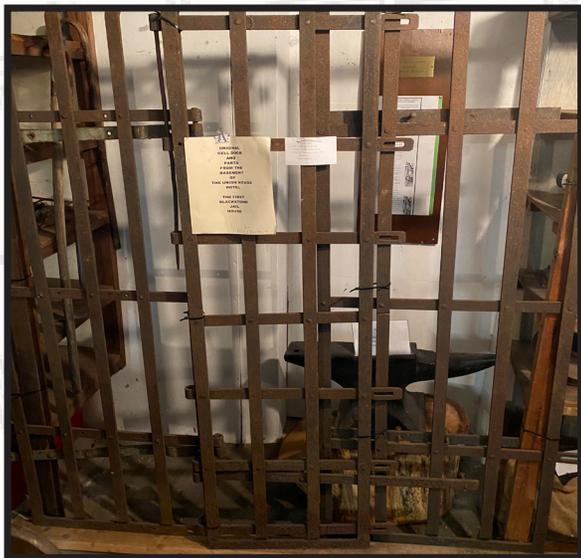

Come and enjoy a few hours as friendly, knowledgeable volunteers guide you through the museum of the quaint New England mill town. View the tools blacksmiths used to hand forge mill components and farm implements. In the Veterans' room look up ancestors from Blackstone who served in military actions. Laugh as you remember your high school years while looking the yearbook library.

Collections of photos, literature, clothing, and other memorabilia bring Blackstone's past to your fingertips.

You may say "I remember..." or be enlightened to a past way of life. So come and immerse yourself in Blackstone's heritage at the Blackstone Historical Museum.

Our Mission: To preserve Blackstone's past, to benefit it's future.
